Signing your waiver

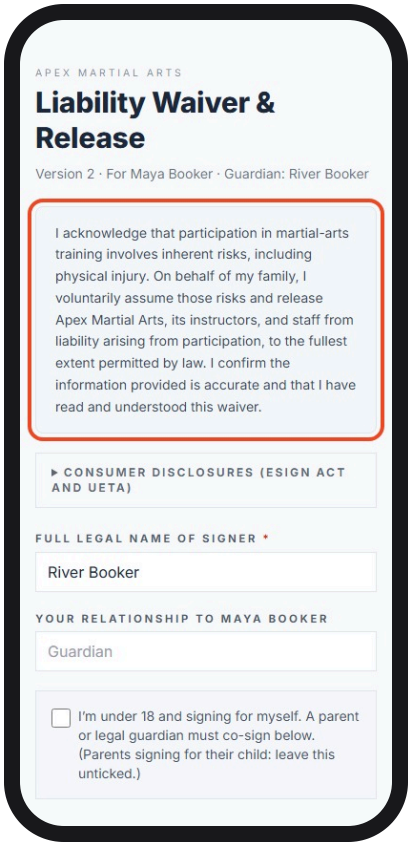

Sign your school's waiver on your phone in about two minutes.

About 2 minutes | 8 steps

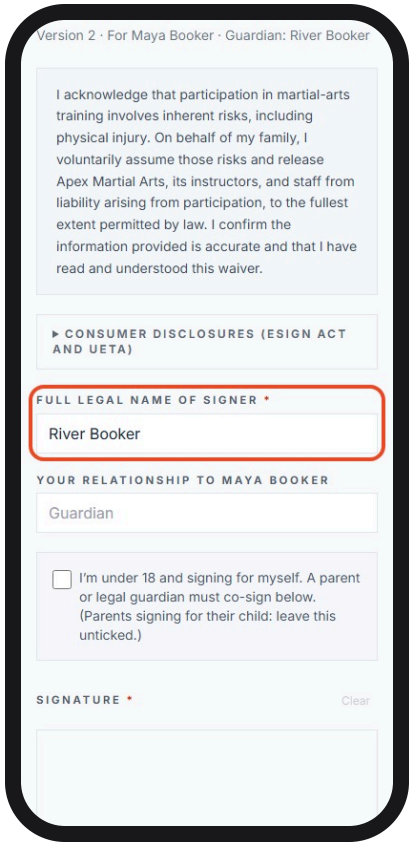

1 Open the link in your email

Your school emails you a link. Tap it to open the waiver.

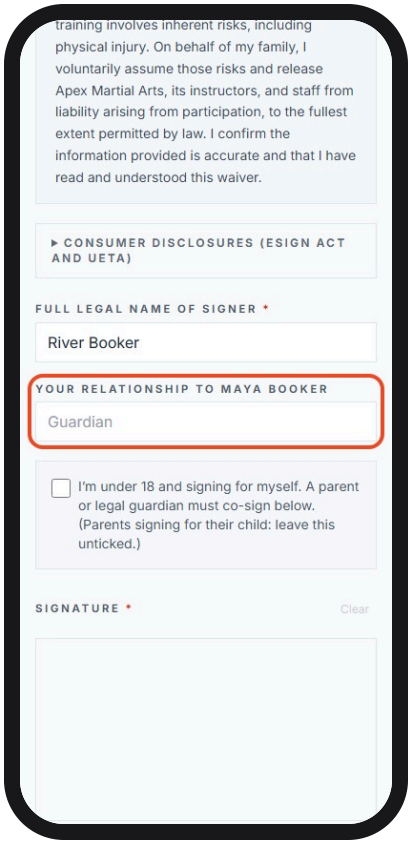

2 Read the waiver

Read it through. It explains the risks of training and what you're agreeing to.

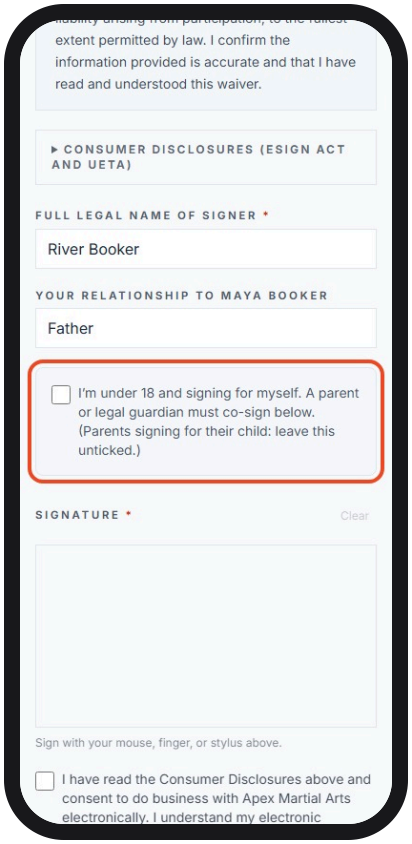

3 Check your name

Your name is filled in for you. Make sure it's your full legal name.

4 How you're related

Type how you're related to your child: mother, father or guardian.

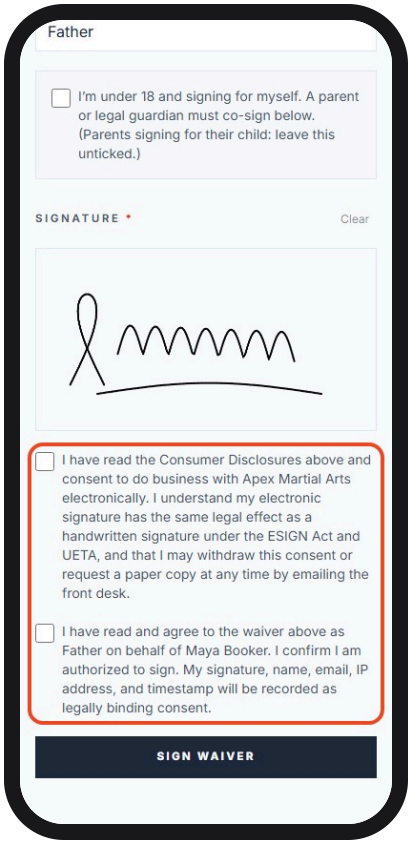

5 Signing as the parent? Leave this empty

This box is for a teenager signing for themselves. If you're the parent, leave it empty.

6 Sign with your finger

Sign in the box with your finger. Tap Clear to start over.

7 Tick both boxes

Tick both boxes: one to sign online, one to agree to the waiver.

8 Tap Sign waiver

Tap Sign waiver. That's it.

What happens next

1. Keep your copy
   Download your signed copy from this page once everyone has signed, or find it later under Waivers in your family portal.

2. When it runs out
   Many schools ask for a new waiver every year. You'll get an email reminder a month before yours runs out.

3. Add a card
   If your school takes payments online, see the guide Adding a card.

Good to know

Where is the link?
In an email from your school about the waiver. You can also sign it in the app, under Waivers.

Two parents?
If your school asks for a second parent, they get their own link by email.

Made a mistake?
Before you tap Sign waiver, tap Clear to redo your signature. After that, ask the front desk.
